Section 1.0	General	Rev. 1
1.1	Introduction	Oct 27, 2006

Emergencies are defined as situations or impending situations caused by forces of nature, a disease or health risk, accident or an act intentional or otherwise that constitutes a danger of major proportions to life and property. They affect public safety, health, welfare and property, as well as the environment and economic health of the County of Perth and Member Municipalities, herein referred to as ‘the Municipality’.

In order to protect residents, businesses and visitors, the Municipality requires a coordinated emergency response by a number of agencies under the direction of the Emergency Control Group. These are distinct arrangements and procedures from the normal, day-to-day operations carried out by emergency services.

The Emergency Management Program Committees of Perth County developed this emergency management plan in accordance to the Community Risk Profile (supplemental document). Every official, municipal department and agency must be prepared to carry out assigned responsibilities in an emergency. The management plan has been prepared to provide key officials, agencies and departments important emergency management information related to:

- Arrangements, services and equipment
- Roles and responsibilities during an emergency

For this Emergency Management Plan to be effective, all participating agencies and departments must be familiar with its provisions and procedures. The information contained within this plan must be reviewed, tested and maintained on a regular schedule in order for it to remain effective, appropriate, and up-to-date as municipal officials, corporate structures and the nature of emergencies change over time.

We acknowledge the following sources of information for the development of this plan:

- The City of Brampton Emergency Measures Plan
- County of Wellington Emergency Response Plan
- The Township of Woolwich Emergency Preparedness Handbook
- Emergency Management Ontario Community Emergency Management Program Handbook

1.2	Aim	May 11, 2006

The aim of this plan is to make provisions for the extraordinary arrangements and measures that may have to be taken to safeguard property and the health, safety and welfare of the inhabitants of the Municipality, when faced with an emergency due to hazards identified in the Community Risk Profile (supplemental confidential document).

1.3	Authority	Dec 16, 2008

The Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter E.9 is the legal authority for this emergency management plan in Ontario.

The Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act states that:

“The Head of Council of a municipality may declare that an emergency exists in the municipality or in any part thereof and may take such action and make such orders as he or she considers necessary and are not contrary to law to implement the emergency plan of the municipality and to protect property and the health, safety and welfare of the inhabitants of the emergency area.”

As enabled by the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act, this emergency management plan and its' elements have been:

- Issued under the authority of County of Perth By-law # 3113
- Issued under the authority of Municipality of West Perth By-law # 117-08
- Issued under the authority of Municipality of North Perth By-law # 142-2008
- Issued under the authority of Township of Perth South By-law # 62-2008
- Issued under the authority of Township of Perth East By-law # 61-2008
- Filed with Emergency Management Ontario, Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services

1.3.1 Scope

This plan supersedes and replaces all previous plans and procedures for emergency management enacted by the County of Perth, the Municipality of North Perth, the Municipality of West Perth, the Township of Perth South, and the Township of Perth East.

1.3.2 Definition of an Emergency

The Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act defines an emergency as:

“a situation or an impending situation that constitutes a danger of major proportions that could result in serious harm to persons or substantial damage to property and that is caused by the forces of nature, a disease or health risk, an accident or an act whether intentional or otherwise.”

	County of Perth and Member Municipalities
	Emergency Management Plan	Page 2 of 2
Section 1.0	General	Rev. 2
1.3	Authority	Dec 16, 2008

For the purposes of this plan, an emergency may be defined as a situation or the threat of an impending situation, abnormally affecting the health, safety, welfare and property of the residents of the Municipality, which by nature of its magnitude, requires a controlled and coordinated response by multiple agencies, under the direction of the Emergency Control Group. Emergencies are distinct from the normal daily routine carried out by municipal first response agencies/departments such as fire, police, EMS, health, etc.

1.3.3 Action Prior to Declaration

When an emergency exists but has not yet been declared to exist, community employees may take such action(s) under this emergency management plan as may be required to protect property and the health, safety and welfare of the Municipality. The subordinate plans, attached as annexes to this document, may also be implemented, in whole, or in part in the absence of a formal declaration.

1.4.1 Internal Procedures

Each service or agency involved or identified in this plan shall be responsible for preparing their own emergency operating procedures and shall be responsible for training their staff on the emergency procedures and expectations during an emergency.

1.4.2 Annual Review

At a minimum, this plan will be reviewed annually for accuracy by the Community Emergency Management Coordinator (CEMC) and the Emergency Management Program Committees of Perth County. The plan will be reviewed for effectiveness through emergency exercises on an annual basis, testing the plan in whole or in part. The CEMC and the Emergency Management Program Committees will make the appropriate changes to the plan as a result of these reviews and tests.

1.4.3 Amendments

Amendments to the plan require formal Council approval from all municipalities. Formal Council approval is not required for the following:

- Changes or revisions to the appendices
- Minor editorial changes, i.e. editorial changes to text, section numbering, reference changes, or changes to references to provincial status

1.4.4 Flexibility

No Emergency Management Plan can anticipate all of the varied emergency situations that may arise in a changing community. During the course of the implementation of this plan in an emergency situation, members of the Emergency Control Groups in the course of conducting their assigned roles and responsibilities may exercise flexibility. To ensure that the public health, safety and welfare of the community are of utmost priority in the emergency response, minor deviations from the emergency management plan may be permitted.

2.3.1 Declaration of an Emergency

The Head of Council, or Acting Head of Council, of the Municipality has the legislative authority, under the provisions of the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act, and are responsible for declaring an emergency. This decision is usually made in consultation with other members of the Emergency Control Group.

When considering whether to declare an emergency, a positive response to one or more of the following criteria may indicate that a situation, whether actual or anticipated, warrants the declaration of an emergency:

- Is the situation an extraordinary event requiring extraordinary measures?
- Does the situation pose a danger of major proportions to life or property?
- Does the situation pose a threat to the provision of essential services (e.g. energy, potable water, sewage treatment/containment, supply of goods or medical care)?
- Does the situation threaten social order and the ability to govern?
- Is the event attracting significant media and/or public interest?
- Has there been a declaration of emergency by another level of government?
- Might legal action be taken against municipal employees or councilors related to their actions during the current crisis?
- Are volunteers assisting?
- Does the situation require a response that exceeds, or threatens to exceed the capabilities of the municipality for either resources or deployment of personnel?
- Does the situation create sufficient strain on the municipal response capability that areas within the municipality may be impacted by a lack of services, thereby further endangering life and property outside areas directly affected by the current crisis?
- Is it a consideration that the municipal response may be of such duration that additional personnel and resources may be required to maintain the continuity of operations?
- Does, or might, the situation require provincial support or resources?
- Does, or might, the situation require assistance from the provincial or federal government (e.g. military equipment)?
- Does the situation involve a structural collapse?
- Is the situation a large-scale or complex chemical, biological, radiological, or nuclear (CBRN) incident?
- Does the situation require, or have the potential to require the evacuation and/or shelter of people or animals [livestock] from your municipality?
- Will your municipality be receiving evacuees from another community?
- Does the situation pose a large-scale disruption to routine patterns of transportation, or re-routing of large numbers of people and vehicles?
- Is an event likely to have a long term negative impact on a community's economic viability/sustainability, including resulting unemployment, lack of available banking services and restorative measures necessary to re-establish commercial activity?
- Is it possible that a specific person, corporation, or other party has caused the situation?

2.3	Declaration of an Emergency	Nov 3, 2008

Upon declaring an emergency, the Head of Council will complete the 'Declaration of Emergency' (Appendix C) and the following will be notified:

- Emergency Management Ontario, Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services
- County and/or Municipal Council
- County Warden
- Public
- Neighbouring community officials
- Local Member of the Provincial Parliament (MPP)
- Local Member of Parliament (MP)
- Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing

An emergency declaration is not required prior to any County or municipal personnel taking actions under this plan to protect the lives, health, safety, and property of the inhabitants of the Municipality.

An emergency declaration, however, can often encourage greater public compliance, and understanding of the severity of an emergency situation.

2.3.2 Termination of an Emergency

A community emergency may be terminated at any time by:

- The Head of Council, or acting Head of Council
- County Council and/or Municipal Council
- Premier of Ontario

When terminating an emergency, the Head of Council will complete 'Termination of Declared Emergency' (Appendix D) and the following will be notified:

- Emergency Management Ontario, Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services

2.5	Requests for Assistance	Mar 25, 2011

2.5.1 County Assistance

Assistance may be requested from the County at any time by contacting the County Warden. The request shall not be deemed to be a request that the County assume authority and control of the emergency.

The County of Perth is neither empowered to declare an emergency nor to direct the activities of lower tier municipalities in responding to an emergency, unless the municipality(s) involved requests such assistance.

The County Emergency Control Group may be activated under the following conditions:

- When the Head of Council of the lower tier Emergency Control Group requests assistance and indicates whether the County is being asked to provide assistance or to assume control of the emergency
- When an emergency cannot be defined as a local emergency
- When County facilities are threatened or an extraordinary demand is placed on County resources
- When an event occurs in any Member Municipality

2.5.2 Provincial Assistance

Assistance may also be requested from the Province of Ontario at any time without any loss of control or authority. A request for assistance should be made by contacting the Provincial Emergency Operations Centre.

If an emergency is declared, Emergency Management Ontario will normally deploy a Field Officer to the local Emergency Operations Centre to assist the community with the emergency response. The Field Officer will be the link between the municipality and the province for both provincial, and if necessary, federal assistance.

2.5.3 Mutual Aid/Assistance Agreements

Mutual aid/assistance agreements ensure aid required to effectively manage an emergency. Aid provided may include services, personnel, equipment and materials. Mutual aid/assistance agreements enable municipalities, in advance of an emergency, to set the terms and conditions of the assistance which may be requested or provided. Municipalities requesting and providing assistance are therefore not required to negotiate the basic terms and conditions of the request at the time of an emergency and may request, offer or receive assistance according to the predetermined and mutually agreeable arrangements.

The request or response to a request of a neighbouring municipality is the responsibility of the Senior Municipal Official. The request to execute the County of Perth Fire Mutual and Automatic Aid Plan and Program will be the responsibility of the municipal Fire Chief or County Fire Coordinator. The request for such assistance and execution of a mutual assistance agreement will be made in consultation with the Emergency Control Group. Alternatively, the request to execute a mutual assistance agreement with a neighbouring municipality will be made by the Senior Municipal Official.

Note: For coordination with other emergency plans, including federal assistance, see Section 4.0 Coordination with Other Plans.

3.1	Incident Management System	Nov 4, 2008

3.1.1 Incident Management System

A standardized approach to emergency management ensures a consistent, coordinated and controlled approach to decision-making, identifying objectives, establishing incident priorities, integrated response, managed resources and provides life-safety for responders and the community.

The organizational structure of an Incident Management System (IMS) should be adaptable to any incident regardless of type or complexity. Any Incident Management System used during an emergency must be expandable and easily applied to small routine incidents up to and including large multi-agency operations.

3.1.2 Concepts of Command in IMS

3.1.2.1 Common Terminology

In order for an IMS structure to succeed, terminology for the organizational elements must be standard and consistent. Common names for all resources should be used within IMS, and any resource that varies in capability must be clearly identified. The Command post, incident base and staging areas should all have common identifiers.

3.1.2.2 Modular Organization

The IMS organizational structure builds from the top down with responsibility and performance placed initially with the Incident Commander.

As the need exists, three to four separate sections can be developed, each with its own responsibilities, i.e. Operations, Planning, Logistics, and Administration.

If one individual can manage all the areas, no further organization is required. If one or more of the areas requires independent management, an individual is named to be responsible for that area.

3.1.2.3 Integrated Communications

All communication between organizational elements at an incident should be in plain English. All communications should be confined to essential traffic only. Tactical or special channels should be pre-designated and utilized. Key elements can be assigned specific communication routes.

	County of Perth and Member Municipalities
	Emergency Management Plan	Page 2 of 4
Section 3.0	Emergency Response	Rev. 3
3.1	Incident Management System	Nov 4, 2008

3.1.2.4 Consolidated Action Plans

Every incident requires an action plan when:

- multiple-agency resources are used
- multiple jurisdictions are involved
- the incident is large and requires staging and triage
- there will be changes in equipment or personnel

The emergency site team decides on mitigation strategies and tactics to limit the threat to people, property and the environment at the emergency site.

3.1.2.5 Manageable Span-of-Control

Each individual should supervise a maximum of seven personnel, however an ideal ratio is 5:1. The nature of the incident, hazards, and distances between IMS elements influences control. Anticipate change and be prepared.

3.1.2.6 Incident Facilities

Incident facilities include the following:

- Emergency Operations Centre
- On-site Command Post
- Staging areas
- Triage area
- Resource storage
- Morgue

3.1.2.7 Comprehensive Resource Management

Resource management, consisting as a single unit or a team, ensures maximum resource utilization while minimizing the response of private citizens. It allows for consistent tracking and evaluation, ensures safety and minimizes risk, and supports effective communication.

3.2	Incident Command	Mar 25, 2011

3.2.1 Incident Command Appointment

The Incident Commander is appointed by the Emergency Control Group, and is usually the Incident Coordinator from the lead emergency response agency. Once appointed, he/she assumes responsibility for overall coordination of all operations at the emergency site, but no longer command of any specific response organization. Each emergency response organization will have a Chief or Incident Coordinator at the emergency site, which will then liaise with the Incident Commander.

3.2.1.1 Single Incident Command Model

Single command exists when the decision-making process needed to direct the response is straightforward and independent. This typically is the case when an incident is the responsibility of a single jurisdiction or organization. A Single Command model may be arrived at:

- By default when only one jurisdiction or organization is involved
- By design when multiple jurisdictions or organizations that are involved decide and agree on a Single Command
- By legislation if the responsibility of legally that of one jurisdiction or organization

3.2.1.2 Unified Incident Command Model

Unified Command may be used when incident decision-making is complex, and interdependent, and a Single Incident Command cannot be established. Organizations work together through their designated members of the Unified Command to establish a common set of objectives and strategies and a single Incident Action Plan.

The Unified Command team will agree upon one spokesperson to represent it, when necessary. There may be different spokespersons on different occasions, but typically there will only be one spokesperson at a time.

3.2.2 Transfer of Command

To relieve the Incident Commander, the Emergency Control Group will appoint the Second in Command as the Incident Commander, as required.

- Request assistance from responding organizations and/or the Emergency Control Group for communications, resources and other site management tools
- Request additional resources for the Emergency Site through the Senior Municipal Official and other members of the Emergency Control Group

3.3	Incident Management Team Roles and Responsibilities	Nov 4, 2008

The following are possible roles and responsibilities as the IMS structure expands to meet the needs of the emergency. It is the responsibility of the Incident Commander or Section Chief to expand and delegate to subordinates as required.

3.3.1 Safety Officer

Reports to the Incident Commander.

The Safety Officer monitors safety conditions and develops safety measures. This is done in close conjunction with the Operations Chief and the Planning Chief. 3.4	Telecommunications	May 11, 2006

Upon implementation of the Emergency Management Plan, it is crucial to ensure that timely and accurate communications are established between the emergency site and the Emergency Operations Centre. Also, communications may be required at various locations including evacuation centres, hospitals, and other key responding agencies.

Radio communications are least susceptible to damage or interruption in time of emergency. A radio relay dispatch system set up between the emergency site and the operations centre as well as radio communication with other communities will ensure that outside agencies will be well informed of the status of the emergency. Telephone landlines may be used as a means of communication but the Emergency Operations Centre will require numerous lines and instruments to ensure good information flow and to protect against possible system failures. In addition, the Amateur Radio Emergency Services is available to provide support communications or emergency communications should other forms fail.

Other forms of telecommunication such as cellular phones, fax machines, email, Blackberrys and Internet may be used to supplement or enhance emergency telecommunications between the Emergency Operations Centre, the emergency site, outside agencies, and other communities. Care will be required when using alternate forms of communication to ensure security of information being disseminated.

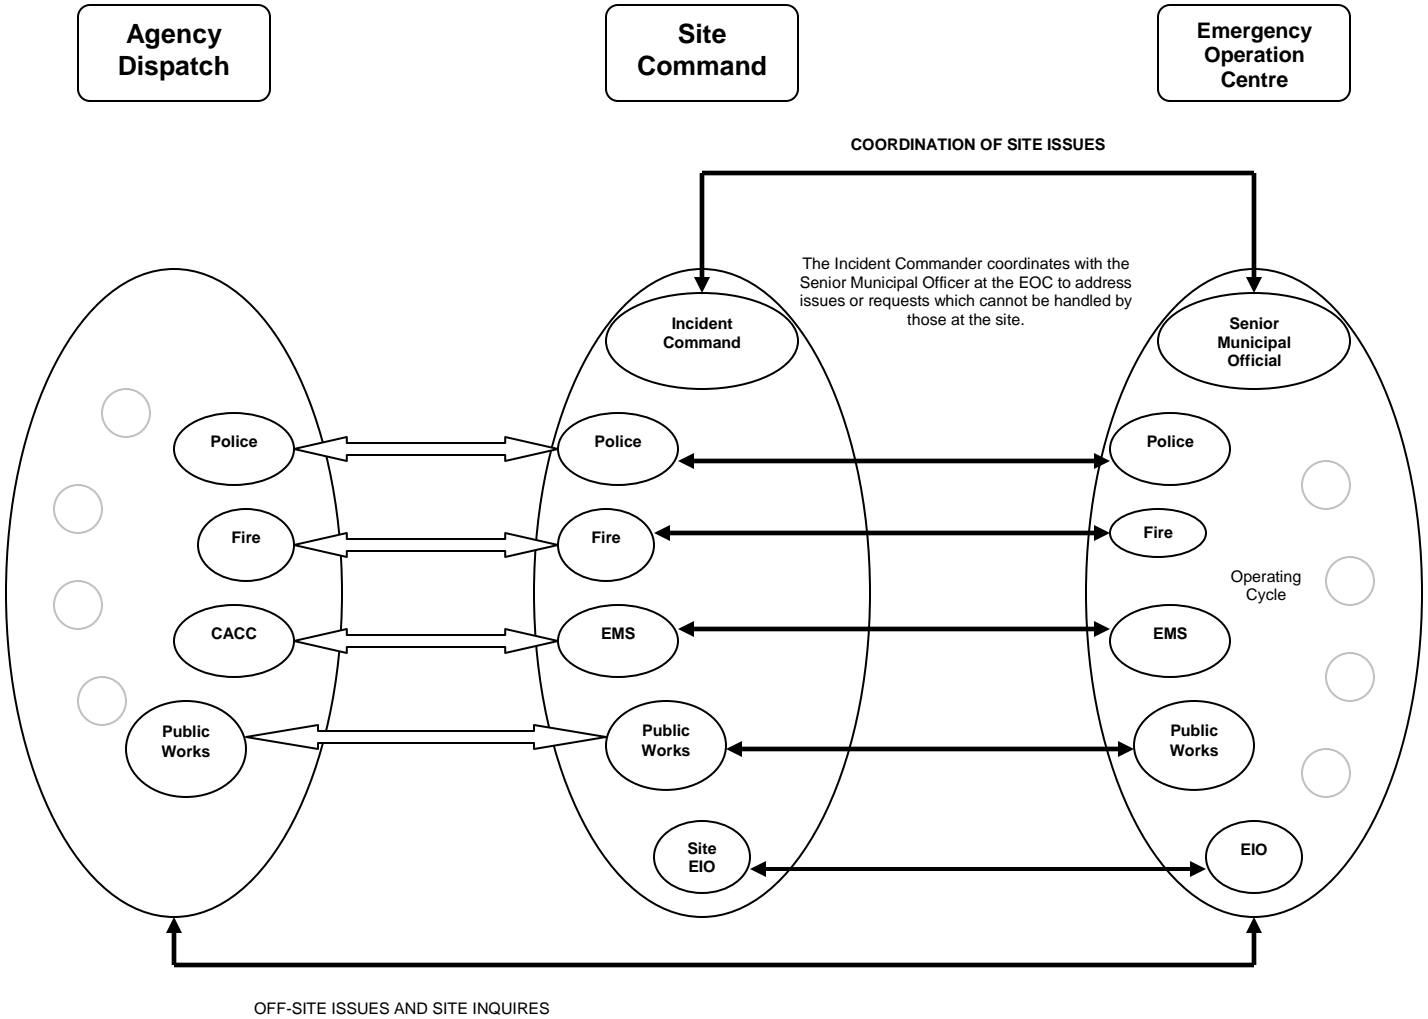

Cell phones are not recommended as a form of emergency communication. However, if cell sites are operating and functional, this form of telecommunications may be used to enhance emergency operations. It should be noted that this form of communication is not very secure.

Each agency in the Emergency Operations Centre communicates with its respective coordinator/supervisor at the emergency site. Although the coordinators/supervisors maintain open communication with their dispatch centre, strong channels are developed between the site coordinators/supervisors and the Emergency Control Group.

4.1.1 Provincial Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear, Explosives (CBRNE) Response Teams and Heavy Urban Search and Rescue (HUSAR) Teams

Teams may be activated through the County Fire Coordinator, subject to the following conditions being met:

- The local municipality has responded but has insufficient resources or capability to effectively deal with or resolve the situation
- Appropriate resources available throughout the County are also insufficient to effectively deal with or resolve the situation
- The Fire Coordinator, or alternate, for the County has verified that the two conditions above have been met
- The municipality has declared an emergency, or is in the process of doing so

A “significant emergency” is defined as:

- A large-scale or complex natural or human caused chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear or explosives emergency, or
- A large-scale or complex natural or human caused heavy urban search and rescue emergency

To request the assistance of the teams, the Fire Coordinator contacts the Provincial Operations Centre and provides information about the emergency, including the exact location. Once it has been determined by the Provincial Operations Centre that the incident in question is a “significant emergency” and that the conditions listed above have been met, appropriate approval will be given to deploy the resources of one or more of the teams to the scene.

Concurrently, the Provincial Operations Centre will contact the Ontario Fire Marshall to request that its support personnel and equipment be deployed. The Provincial Operations Centre will also deploy the Emergency Management Ontario Provincial Emergency Response Team to provide advice and assistance to community officials. If necessary and appropriate, the OPP Provincial Emergency Response Team will also be deployed.

A fire department may have to respond to incidents that are not “significant emergencies” but that nonetheless are beyond the fire department’s capabilities and require additional resources. In these situations, the Fire Coordinator may contact the Provincial Operations Centre. Arrangements will then be made to contact the Ontario Fire Marshall to request technical and/or equipment support in order to potentially resolve the situation. The Ontario Fire Marshall may in turn request specialized technical expertise form the memorandums of understanding partners or other sources of assistance to help the local response.

4.1.6 Ontario Disaster Relief Assistance Program (ODRAP) – Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing

ODRAP is intended to alleviate some of the hardship suffered by private homeowners, farmers, small business enterprises and non-profit organizations, whose essential property has been damaged during a sudden and unexpected natural disaster. ODRAP provides fund to those who have sustained heavy losses for essential items such as shelter and “necessities of life”.

ODRAP provides assistance when damages are so extensive that they exceed the financial resources of affected individuals, the municipality or community at large, but does not cover damages to privately owned, non-essential property, nor to essential property where private insurance is normally available.

The Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing is authorized to declare a “disaster area” for the purposes of the ODRAP program. The municipal council asking for assistance under the ODRAP program must adopt a resolution outlining the following:

1. The municipality’s request for a disaster area declaration.
2. Whether all or a specified portion of the municipality is to be declared a disaster area.

The request for a disaster area declaration must be submitted to the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing within 14 working days of the date of the disaster.

Further ODRAP information, procedures and application documentation is available with the CEMC.

5.1.1 Definition

Community Volunteers are people not attached or associated with a formal organization or recognized support group such as the Red Cross, St. John Ambulance or the Salvation Army.

5.1.2 Community Volunteers and Additional Human Resources

Under certain circumstances it may be necessary to issue appeals to the public for volunteers with certain skills to assist in managing an emergency. This should not be done until all available municipal personnel or members of recognized support groups with similar skills have been called upon, and then only under the authority of the Head of Council.

The Emergency Control Group will determine the number of volunteers required, their skills, tools to be brought, and the assembly point to which they are to report. The appeal is written by the Emergency Information Officer in consultation with the Emergency Control Group to be provided to the media in a clear and consistent manner. The Emergency Information Officer will also write a cancellation broadcast as soon as the required number of volunteers has enrolled.

The Human Resources Lead, under the direction of the Logistics Chief is responsible for the coordinating the registration of such volunteers for insurance coverage purposes and their dispatch to the area where they are required.

5.1.3 Volunteer Management

Management of the community volunteers needs will be required, including:

- Training requirements (Health and Safety policies, use of personal protective equipment)
- Food and beverage
- Lodging
- Special needs
- Staffing shifts

6.1.1 Evacuation Definition

Mandatory Evacuation takes place when it is determined by the Emergency Control Group that there is an absolute need to evacuate an area, usually on a large-scale, possibly for a long period of time (i.e. more than 24 hours).

Municipal employees would recommend Mandatory Evacuation to the Emergency Control Group when there is an absolute need to evacuate an area on a large scale, possibly for a long period of time during an emergency.

6.1.2 When to Evacuate

The logistics of evacuating a segment of the community is usually overwhelming. The Emergency Control Group must evaluate the following criteria before making the decision to conduct an evacuation:

- Is there enough time to evacuate the affected area? This includes notifying the citizens, setting up a reception centre, activating additional resources.
- Is the problem likely to escalate?
- What would the impact be if it does?
- Are toxic gases involved?
- How long is the incident likely to continue?
- What are the existing resources?

6.1.3 Public Notification

The Municipality may utilize a phone fan-out process which builds on community ties to inform as many people as possible within the community of an evacuation. Additionally, door to door canvassing by means of loud hailers on both police and fire vehicles, and knocking on doors will be conducted, possibly utilizing volunteers or emergency responders. Local media outlets will be contacted to direct people as to what to do and where to go.

4. Decide what the evacuation parameters are
5. Determine which pre-approved Emergency Evacuation Centres are going to be used

7. Establish communication with the Evacuation Centres (this can be done by dispatching A.R.E.S.)
8. Prepare a Public Notification news release
9. Notify the local radio and TV stations to broadcast the Public Notification News Release
10. Conduct follow-up actions

6.1.5 Roles and Responsibilities of the Emergency Control Group

- Advising the Head of Council as to whether the declaration of an emergency and a mandatory evacuation is recommended
- Arranging for services and equipment from local agencies not under municipal control, i.e. private contractors, volunteer agencies, service clubs, etc.
- Deciding to evacuate buildings or sections within an emergency area which are themselves considered to be dangerous or in which the occupants are considered to be in danger from some other source

- The expected duration of the evacuation

Essential services provided at the Evacuation Centre include:

- Registration and Inquiry

6.2.1 Shelter-in-Place Definition

Shelter-in-place is the practice of going or remaining indoors during severe weather, the release of an airborne hazardous material, or other emergency event. Unless the substance is flammable, like natural gas, emergency response personnel recommend that citizens initially stay indoors, until instructions are provided to leave. Buildings can protect those in the emergency area.

6.2.2 When to order Shelter-in-Place

Shelter-in-place should be ordered when:

- The situation will be short lived, such as a toxic vapour cloud passing over the community
- The law of averages suggests loss of property and life will be less if people are not centralized, such as during a tornado
- Time is not available
- The velocity of the wind is high and the direction is well defined

6.2.3 Public Notification

The Municipality may utilize a phone fan-out process which builds on community ties to inform as many people as possible within the community of a shelter-in-place order. Additionally, door to door canvassing by means of loud hailers on both police and fire vehicles, and knocking on doors will be conducted, possibly utilizing volunteers or emergency responders. Local media outlets will be contacted to direct people as to what to do.

Technical information (i.e. website “hot buttons”, fact sheets) does not require pre-approval from the Emergency Control Group. However, hardcopies or emails of this documentation must be provided to the Emergency Information Officer to be forwarded to the Emergency Control Group and other stakeholders for their information.

7.1.4 Audiences

During an emergency there are a number of internal and external audiences that will require information. The following is a listing of those audiences that may require specific information during an emergency. It is important to consider the audience that is to be targeted when preparing and disseminating information.

7.1.5 Communications Flow

7.1.5.1 Internal Communication Flow

It is the responsibility of the Emergency Control Group to provide information to the Incident Commander with respect to decisions being made in the Emergency Operations Centre and to ensure that the Incident Commander is aware of all of the information that is being sent out to the external audiences. Each member of the Emergency Control Group is responsible for ensuring that decisions and actions being made and taken by the Emergency Control Group are conveyed to their staff both at the site and off site.

7.1.5.2 External Communication Flow

A primary function of the Emergency Control Group is to gather and manage information during an emergency. Information will be gathered during Operation Cycle meetings at the Emergency Operations Centre, from the site, and by monitoring media reports to ensure that the information being conveyed is accurate.

Where necessary, the general public will be notified by a press conference or news release. Note that all senior officials must clear all news releases regarding death or criminal activity from the Ontario Provincial Police.

7.1.6 Distribution of Emergency Information

Emergency information products and practices that can be used to distribute information to the media and public include:

- Media Advisories – brief messages or announcements, such as the time and location of an upcoming news conference.
- News Releases – key information about the incident or emergency.
- Fact Sheets – pre-written detailed information provided about the Municipality's Emergency Management Program, the history of emergency events in the area, etc.
- Websites – an excellent means to update a large portion of the public in a minimal amount of time.
- Citizen Inquiry Line – provides members of the public with a phone number to call in order to get more information.
- Media scrums – informal briefings provided to the media by the Media Spokesperson.
- News Conferences – formal and moderated meetings between key officials/Media Spokespersons and the media.
- Newsletters – direct mailings to the public.
- Door-to-door campaign.
- Information Phone Line – Citizen Inquiry Phone Line established to directly answer the public's questions.

7.1.7 Emergency Information Centre

Emergency information related to routine or non-complex incidents can generally be handled from an emergency site, or other municipal offices by the Emergency Information Officer. However, large-scale and or complex incidents and emergencies may necessitate establishing an Emergency Information Centre, directed by the Emergency Information Officer. Depending on the full scope of the emergency, there will possibly be a need to establish two Emergency Information Centres. One will be near the scene for the On-site Emergency Information Officer, and the other will be

	County of Perth and Member Municipalities
	Emergency Management Plan	Page 5 of 7
Section 7.0	Crisis Media/Public Communications Plan	Rev. 1
7.1	Emergency Information	Mar 25, 2011

near, or at designated areas at, the Emergency Operations Centre. In some cases, a joint media information centre may be appropriate.

Common Emergency Information Centre functions, directed by the Emergency Information Officer, include:

- Media services: Welcomes and registers media personnel, provides written background information (contained in pre-prepared media packages) and answers logistical questions. Usually the location for news conferences.
- Call-taker: Answers phone lines designated for media inquiries. Messages taken for the Emergency Information Officer who then returns the calls.
- News monitoring: Monitors media coverage of the emergency. Records/clips stories and reports rumours and misinformation to the Emergency Information Officer.
- Administration: Provides administrative support to the Emergency Information Centre staff. Also coordinates the provisions of food for the Emergency Information Centre staff.
- Logistics: Provides provisions for IT support, equipment set-up, security for the Emergency Information Centre, parking coordination and building maintenance.
- Spokespersons: Heads of Council that will speak to the media regarding the municipality's response to the emergency and answer questions.

Emergency Information Centres will be located at the Emergency Operation Centres (see Appendix B). Separate entrances will be used for the Emergency Operations Centre staff and the media, with the aid of security.

Support from mutual assistance, volunteers, and/or Emergency Management Ontario may be required regarding the operation of the Emergency Information Centre.

7.1.8 Coordination with Other Agencies

Coordination between participating organizations is essential for the purpose of ensuring consistent and accurate messages are delivered to the media and public.

For routine incidents, emergency information is typically coordinated from the incident site between the Incident Commander and the Senior Municipal Official. For larger-scale, or extended duration incidents attracting significant media attention, the Emergency Control Group may decide to activate the Emergency Information Centre. It is then important that the coordination of information is immediately established between the On-site Emergency Information Officer(s) and the Emergency Information Officer at the Emergency Information Centre.

	County of Perth and Member Municipalities
	Emergency Management Plan	Page 6 of 7
Section 7.0	Crisis Media/Public Communications Plan	Rev. 1
7.1	Emergency Information	Mar 25, 2011

When multiple organizations are involved, it may be advantageous to coordinate emergency information from a Joint Information Centre. A Joint Information Centre is operated jointly by the Municipality and other incident stakeholders. Representatives of each agency would be on hand to coordinate on messages and speak to their respective areas of responsibility during news conferences and interviews.

7.1.9 Emergency Citizen Inquiry Centre

The Emergency Citizen Inquiry Centre, directed by the Citizen Inquiry Supervisor, is a public inquiries centre using broadcasted and dedicated telephone numbers and email addresses, staffed by trained operators which will provide information to help the public cope with the emergency or disaster.

The Emergency Citizen Inquiry Centre also gathers information from callers about needs, concerns and offers of assistance. This information will then be passed to the appropriate Emergency Response organization to ensure that needs are met and available resources are utilized.

Support from mutual assistance, volunteers, and/or Emergency Management Ontario may be required regarding the operation of the Emergency Citizen Inquiry Centre.

See Appendix O to establish emergency telephone lines in areas served by Bell Canada.

7.1.10 Evaluating Communications Management

It will be important to continually evaluate the effectiveness of our communications during an emergency.

After an emergency, an evaluation will be prepared that looks at the strengths, weaknesses, and improvements needed. This summary will be submitted to the CEMC for preparation of the debriefing report.

To help evaluate the communications, the Emergency Information Team will keep track of:

- News releases issued
- Dissemination of prepared communications
- Media contact forms and follow-up
- Media interviews held

7.2.6 Site and Facility Tours

When an incident or emergency is focused on a physical location, such as a tornado path, the media will desire access to that site. In many cases the media will arrive at the site before an incident management structure has been fully established.

In order to protect the media and control the site, Ontario Provincial Police will restrict the movement of the media in and around the Inner Perimeter and the Emergency Site (see Section 3.0, Diagram #2) as determined by the Incident Commander. Restricted media access to the Emergency Operations Centre will also be established by police.
