

“When I moved here from the city, I didn’t have to give much up. There’s so much more growth and opportunity here than people think. I’ve encouraged all of my friends to come here.”

Eren’s career has taken him off his planned path all the way to Perth County, but he wouldn’t change a thing about it. “I went to University in Ottawa where I majored in environmental studies, but I’ve veered in a different direction,” laughs Eren. “I now work in quality assurance so I’m always presented with different challenges, which keeps things interesting.”

Not previously knowing of the opportunities here in Perth County, Eren was asked by his current employer to come work in Mitchell. “There are so many jobs here and opportunity for growth that I never knew about. After working in the city, it’s nice to be somewhere where your commute is twenty minutes with zero traffic.”

While he grew up in a large city, Eren always had a love for the small town atmosphere. “Perth County feels like a big city in a small town, you have all of the amenities here and there is always something going on. I love this area, it’s a great place to settle down.” ■
