

Perth County

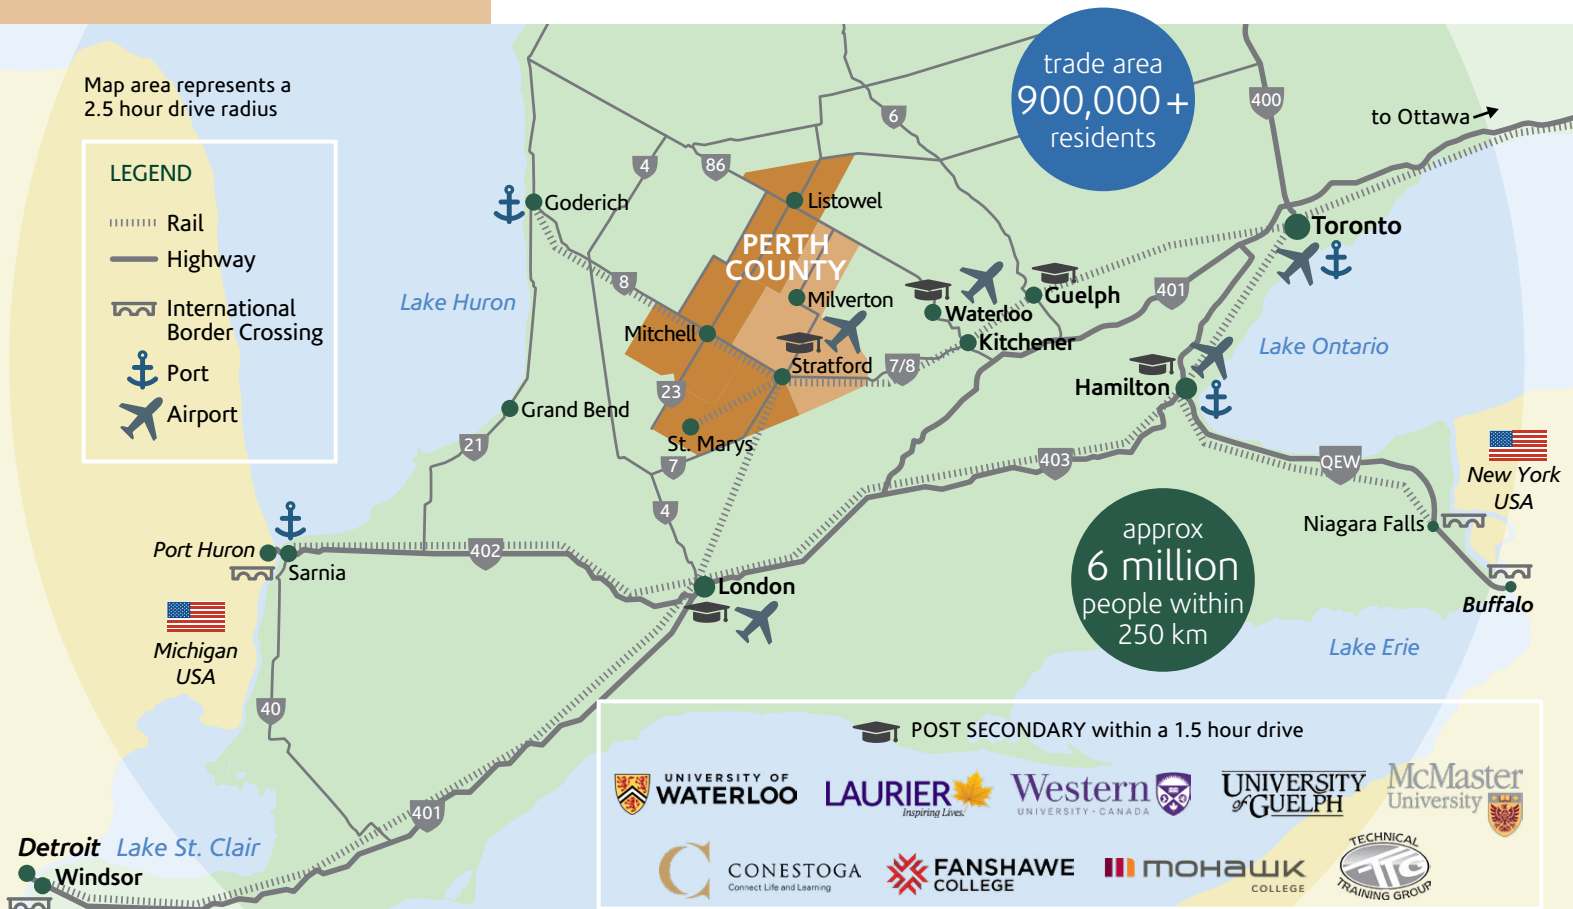

Cultivating Opportunity

“The community is incredibly loyal and supportive. When you walk down the street, people smile and talk to you.”

KATIE BUSINESS OWNER

Perth East is centrally located in mid-western Ontario – 30km north of highway 401, the main transportation artery in Ontario. A geographically large area with a diverse landscape, Perth East is the ideal place for businesses in any sector – from agriculture to fabrication to innovative technology.

Perth East is a warm and welcoming place to call home, known for its unique Amish and Mennonite communities.

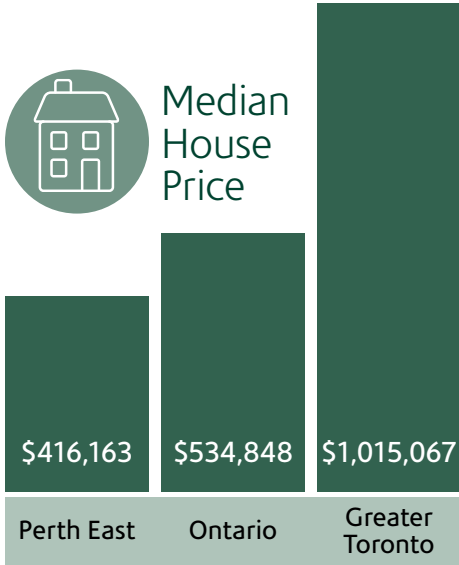

“With small towns comes the opportunity to really be in control of your own path. You can really build prospects for yourself.”
