

Allward Memorial Project Acknowledgements

We wish to thank the many supporters of this project:

the Harris Family
the Somerville family
the Stotts family
the McLean Foundation
the Orr family
Pazzo Taverna & Pizzeria
Craig Foster and Foster's Inn
Joanna Gordon and Resonance
Robert G. Milne

Mayor Dan Mathiesen and the Staff and Councillors of the City of Stratford for championing the project

Warden Jim Aitcheson and the Staff and Councillors of the County of Perth for developing and hosting our page on their website

Betty Jo Belton, Stratford-Perth Archives, for her support and encouragement

Charles Hill for the plaque text editing and the audio script about Walter Allward

Scott McKowen for the design of the plaque

Riverside Brass for the manufacturing of the plaque

Stewart Smith for the finishing of the plaque

Christine Boyanoski for the audio script about the aesthetic qualities of the Stratford sculpture

Laura Brandon for the audio script about the cross-Canada war memorial movement

The artists who recorded these scripts:

Richard Fitzpatrick (Canada and the First World War)

Ruth Barrett (Across Canada - The War Memorial Movement)

Geraint Wyn Davies (Stratford Hires Canada's Leading Monumental Sculptor)

Peter Mansbridge (Walter Allward – Redefining Monumental Sculpture in Canada)

Lally Cadeau (The Beauty and Power of Allward's Stratford War Memorial)

R.H. Thomson and Lally Cadeau (The reading of the names of those from Stratford and surrounding areas who fell in the First World War, whose names are inscribed on the Cenotaph)

Bob Kalmusky of Bobcat Studios for the recordings

The photographers who contributed their work:

Lesley Walker-Fitzpatrick

Scott Wishart

Alan Livingstone MacLeod

The National Gallery of Canada, the Canadian War Museum, the Vimy Foundation, and the McCord Museum and Stratford-Perth Archives for archival photographs