Perth County Honours the Passing of Lloyd Robertson

It is with great sadness that Perth County marks the passing of Lloyd Robertson.

Lloyd had deep roots in Perth County, having grown up in Stratford. He became one of Canada's most respected journalists during a distinguished career spanning decades, covering many of the nation's and the world's most significant events on television and radio.

Perth County extends its heartfelt condolences to Lloyd's family, friends, and all those who had the privilege of knowing him.

In honour of Lloyd's life, remarkable career, and lasting connection to Perth County, flags at the Mitchell Public Works Yard, the Perth County Courthouse, and Perth County Paramedic Services Headquarters have been lowered and will remain at half-mast until the day of his funeral.
